Official Circular: Guide Your Students to Become Published Authors This Summer!

Dear Teachers,

We are excited to share that I E M Public School has been selected to be part of the 2026 Summer Book Writing Festival (SBWF) and as teachers, your encouragement can make all the difference.

Co-presented by EducationWorld and powered by the Discovery Channel, NDTV, and Business World, SBWF is India's most celebrated free online summer programme for students in Grades 3–12.

The best part? It's completely free for every student.

What Your Students Will Do

Through this programme, students will go on a guided journey to become published authors:

- LEARN: Attend free online masterclasses on creative writing and storytelling from world-class experts.
- WRITE: Create and design their very own original story on the BriBooks platform.
- PUBLISH: Become a globally published Young Author.

Your Action: Drive Student Registrations

We encourage you to share the registration link with all students in Grades 3–12 and consider including SBWF as part of the Summer Holiday Homework — schools that do this see the highest participation rates.

1. Share the Link: <https://www.camp.bribooks.com/events/student/signup/sc-india-2026?sid=191978>
2. Integrate into Summer Homework: A simple inclusion goes a long way.
3. Encourage Students: Even a brief mention in your last class before the break can inspire a student to sign up.

What Your School Wins

Schools with the highest number of published authors will receive a Literary Leadership Trophy by EducationWorld, a Certificate of Excellence, and a feature on the Discovery Channel.

Key Details

- Eligibility: Grades 3 to 12
